BIO

Jessica Rose is a Pop Country Artist born and raised in Staten Island, New York. Growing up with Pop Rock roots and performing in Nashville's Broadway bars developed her radio ready crossover sound. Empowered by her impeccable guitar playing and vocals, she also brings the beat with her kick drum. Jessica's energy, stage presence and personability wins over audiences every time she steps on stage.

The Country Music Association named Jessica an Emerging Artist. She has secured many other titles including Nash FM's Nash Next Winner, WSM Roadshow Finalist, Music City Songstar, Josie Awards Modern Country Rising Star and is endorsed by Luna Guitars.

Some performance highlights include opening for artists such as Jimmy Buffett, Russell Dickerson and Tracy Lawrence. She performed at Bridgestone Arena for the Nashville Predators playoff games and 2017 Stanley Cup, Opry City Stage in Times Square, Grand Ole Opry Plaza, SI Yankees Stadium, Rockwood Music Hall and Bowery Electric.
